

Directions for Reading the Journal of Sarah "Sadie" Ricahardson

There is a lot to do at this station, and you will need to complete some writing related to this journal, so your group will need to work quickly and stay focused.

1. read the introduction and the two pages of journal entries out loud as a group. Don't forget to take notice of the dates of each entry
2. As a group, try to come up with answers for the questions on the last page.
3. Write your response to the last question on the "questions" page. Please use a separate piece of paper. Write at least  $\frac{1}{2}$  page, using clear handwriting and your best spelling and grammer.
